

Stringfellow Management Group Achieves AMC Institute Re-Accreditation

Forest Hill, MD (August 2024) – Stringfellow Management Group, Inc. (SMG) has announced that it has been awarded re-accreditation by the AMC Institute, the global trade association representing the Association Management industry.

Among 500-plus Association Management Companies (AMC) worldwide, just 80 have achieved AMC Institute Accreditation, demonstrating the commitment and the ability to deliver the highest level of professional management services to association and not-for-profit clients. These AMCs are the recognized choice of associations and not-for-profit organizations.

Administered by AMC Institute, AMC Institute Accreditation is recognized and supported by ASAE & The Center for Association Leadership and is based on the ANSI Standard of Good Practices for the AMC Industry. ANSI requires that the standard be reviewed and updated regularly to remain an approved standard. Measurable performance practices include contracts and service delivery; employee recruitment, training and professional development; and financial management and internal controls, among others. AMCs must earn re-accreditation every four years, demonstrating to an independent outside auditor that they continue to meet the standard.

“Achieving AMCI re-accreditation is a testament to SMG’s unwavering commitment to excellence, continuous improvement, and the highest standards in association management. This milestone reflects our dedication to serving our clients with integrity and professionalism,” said Kate Davis, Stringfellow Management Group’s HR, Payroll & Benefits Manager.
